About this property

Ideally located between the Trocadéro and Rue de Passy, in one of Paris's most prestigious and sought-after neighborhoods, this outstanding 238 sqm apartment, entirely occupying its floor, is set within a magnificent, impeccably maintained Haussmannian building with concierge. The apartment offers remarkable volumes and showcases the timeless elegance of classic Parisian architecture: ornate moldings, herringbone parquet flooring and marble fireplaces throughout. An elegant entrance gallery leads to a bright double reception room boasting a breathtaking, unobstructed view of the Eiffel Tower, a rare and highly desirable feature. The reception area is completed by a refined living room, a fully equipped large kitchen and an office area perfectly suited for entertaining. The private quarters include four bedrooms: one with en-suite shower room, two additional bedrooms sharing a bathroom, and a spacious master suite overlooking a quiet courtyard, offering absolute calm, generous volumes, a private bathroom and toilet facilities. The property is further enhanced by two cellars and a private wine cellar located in the basement. A rare opportunity combining prestige, iconic views and Parisian refinement, ideal as a primary residence or an exceptional pied-à-terre. Ideally located near high schools and reputable schools
